

A vote of thanks.

As part of the HBOS volunteer scheme, Mr. Paul Newman (father of Harry and Rosie) and colleagues Pauline Carroll, Stephanie Smith and Michelle Walbyoff spent Saturday 7th of June painting the fence around our Infant playpen.

We are very grateful that they chose to help our school, as HBOS also covered the cost of the materials. Our sincere thanks to the volunteers who did a great job and brightened up the play area for the children.

Many other organisations have similar schemes and we have stacks of work to do to bring the school internal décor up to standard as well as continued improvements of the outdoors.

PLEASE THINK OF THE SCHOOL IF YOUR ORGANISATION IS LOOKING FOR A COMMUNITY PROJECT.

T. Taylor Headteacher.